The screenshot shows the 'E-Business Systems' page with the 'Life in Australia - Australian Values' section. The title is 'Life in Australia - Australian Values'. The text reads: 'The Australian Government encourages people to gain an understanding of Australia, its people and their way of life, before applying for a visa to live in Australia. As part of this application every person aged 18 years or over must declare that they will respect Australian values and obey the laws of Australia. You will be asked to confirm that any person aged 18 years or over, who is included in this application, has advised you that they agree with this requirement. The Australian values are outlined below.' The values listed are: 'Australian values include respect for the freedom and dignity of the individual, freedom of religion, commitment to the rule of law, Parliamentary democracy, equality of men and women and a spirit of egalitarianism that embraces mutual respect, tolerance, fair play and compassion for those in need and pursuit of the public good.' It also states: 'Australian society also values equality of opportunity for individuals, regardless of their race, religion or ethnic background.' Further information is provided: 'It is also important to understand that English is the national language. Further information is contained in the Life in Australia booklet, however, you are not required to read the booklet. The booklet is available in a wide range of languages. If you would like a copy of the booklet it can be obtained from the Department's web site.' At the bottom, there are 'Cancel form' and 'Next' buttons. Visa applicants are encouraged to be immunised against infectious diseases before travelling to Australia. Visa applicants who are unable to arrange their immunisation before departure from their home country are encouraged to seek advice on arrival in Australia. The Australian state and territory health authorities assist people to obtain general medical help and advice, including immunisation. Parents are strongly encouraged to have their children immunised against hepatitis B, diphtheria, tetanus, pertussis (whooping cough), poliomyelitis, haemophilus influenzae type-b (Hib), pneumococcal and meningococcal infections, mumps, measles, rubella and varicella (chickenpox). Babies between the ages of 2 and 8 months of age (only) are also encouraged to be immunised against rotavirus.

Parents should bring any immunisation records for their children with them to Australia.

Rubella vaccinations are strongly encouraged for women of child-bearing age.

The screenshot shows the 'Save an application' step in the E-Business Systems interface. The header includes the Australian Government logo and 'Department of Immigration and Citizenship'. The page title is 'E-Business Systems'. The main content area has a blue header 'Save an application' and the following text: 'You can save this application at any time and return to it later. After you have finished filling out this application you must save it before you can lodge it. When you save your application you will be asked to choose a password and you will be given a Saved Application ID. This Saved Application ID and password will allow you to retrieve your saved application at a later time. You will also need this password to electronically attach supporting documents to your application after it has been lodged. You should retain this password until after your application has been decided. You can also enter a brief description here to help you identify this specific application.' Below the text is a text input field labeled 'Description'. At the bottom, there are two buttons: 'Cancel form' and 'Next'.

The screenshot displays the 'Application for a Working Holiday Visa' page. At the top, it features the Australian Government logo and the Department of Immigration and Citizenship. The main heading is 'Application for a Working Holiday Visa'. Below this, there is a 'Payment details' section with the following fields and options:

- Type of credit card: Radio buttons for VISA, MasterCard, American Express, Discover, and Diners Club International.
- Credit card number: A text input field.
- Expiry date: Two dropdown menus for 'Month' and 'Year', followed by '(month/year)'.
- Name on credit card: A text input field.
- Payment amount AUD (Australian dollar): A value of 235.00 is displayed.

Below the form, there is a 'Submit application' button. A warning message states: 'Submit your application by clicking ONCE ONLY on the "Submit application" button, or by selecting "Enter" ONCE from your keyboard when the "Submit application" button is highlighted. Selecting "Submit application" more than once for the same application could result in multiple applications being submitted and additional payments being deducted from your credit card. A successfully submitted application will be acknowledged by a receipt containing your Transaction Reference Number (TRN) and an EFTPOS receipt for your credit card payment.'

At the bottom of the form, there are buttons for 'Print', 'Save', 'Previous', and 'Cancel form'. The footer of the page includes the slogan 'people our business', the version '(1150E (Internet) 27/03/10.1)', and the ABN '33380054836'.
